Press Release

Cultural Committee in collaboration with NSS unit Government Degree College Sunderbani On 23rd March, celebrated Saheedi Diwas in the honour and remembrance of the sacrifice of our brave freedom fighters Bhagat Singh, Sukhdev Thapar, and Shivaram Rajguru for the nation. The trio fought for the freedom of India from the colonial rulers and sacrificed their lives on March 23, 1931.

In the beginning Prof Sham lal (NSS officer) welcome all the staff members, students, NSS volunteers and NCC volunteers. The program aims at instilling sense of gratitude, pride, honor and duty among the young generation by celebrating the life, works and philosophy of these freedom fighters. Awareness lecture regarding the event was also delivered by faculty members viz. Prof. Rabinder Kumar, Prof. Mukesh Sharma and Prof. Sheraz Kousser (convener cultural committee). The purpose of organizing the activity and delivering the lecture was successfully met as the students acquired the message that a great nation is a nation which respects the services of its heroes. This was followed by an awareness rally in which students began their silent march along with NSS and NCC students at the college campus with banners reading the names of the martyr soldiers and paid their immense tribute.

“They may kill me, but they cannot kill my ideas. They can crush my body, but they will not be able to crush my spirit”-Bhagat Singh. In the end Prof. Beant Singh presented vote of thanks. The whole event was organized with the support and guidance from Principal of the college Prof. (Dr) Vandana Gupta. The other staff members who supported to make this event successful were Dr Mohd Azam, Mr. Ravi Kumar (NCC Officer), Dr. Rakesh Kumar and others.
